

Island Park Bridge Club

CLOSED

Regrettably, the Island Park Bridge Club was forced to close its doors for good on July 13.

Every effort was made to keep it alive. The combination of fierce competition from nearby clubs and high rent proved too much to overcome,

To those who attended regularly, many thanks.

Guy Germer is shifting his focus to Naples where he already has a club at the Greek Orthodox Church and plans to open another club at the Naples United Church of Christ in the fall.
